NOT VOTING—1

The conference report was agreed to. Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. LOTT. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I want to thank all of the people who helped get this bill passed.

Senator HATCH, Senator SESSIONS, Senator TORRICELLI, and Senator BIDEN have all been very helpful. I thank them publicly for their hard work. I even want to thank Senator LEAHY. I also want to thank the staff who have been helpful: Makan Delrahim and Renee Augustine of Senator HATCH's staff; Ed Haden and Brad Harris of Senator SESSIONS's staff; Jennifer Leach of Senator TORRICELLI's staff; Jim Greene of Senator BIDEN's staff; Kolan Davis and John McMickle of my staff. I also want to thank Ed Pagan and Bruce Cohen of Senator LEAHY's staff.

I want to emphasize the great amount of work and expertise toward this successful effort of my Counsel, John McMickle. Without his hard work the bill would not have been the good product and compromise it is.

Mr. LEAHY. I congratulate Senator GRASSLEY, the Chairman of the Administrative Oversight Subcommittee and my good friend Senator HATCH, the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee for their work on this measure. They doggedly pursued this passage here today. They showed leadership and we made some progress.

I only wish we could have completed our work on this bill and resolved the remaining important issues in a way that I could have supported and the President could sign.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I know that Senators are interested in the schedule.

First, just very briefly, I want to recognize the achievement that has just taken place. A lot of hard work went into this bill over a long period of time by, of course, Senator GRASSLEY, Senator HATCH, Senator LEAHY, and Senator TORRICELLI. But it also took co-operation from Senator WELLSTONE. Whether he is for it or against it, I think again it showed that when we try we can get a final result which gets some 70 votes.

I commend all of them.

This upcoming vote on the continuing resolution should be the last vote of the week. It will be necessary to pass an additional continuing resolution on Friday. However, we are not aware of any request on the other side of the aisle for a rollcall vote.

Tomorrow's continuing resolution should carry us over until Monday or Tuesday, and we will make further announcements to update Members as to the schedule for next week.

During this time, we will be putting the finishing touches on the appropriations bills and a final determination on the Medicare adjustments.

We are working in a bipartisan way and in a bicameral way with the administration.

We hope to be able to finish the business for the year and for this Congress before the end of next week. It will take a lot more work, but we are making some progress in that direction.

MAKING FURTHER CONTINUING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 2001

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will proceed to the consideration of H.J. Res. 127, which the clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A joint resolution (H.J. Res. 127) making further continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 2001, and for other purposes.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second.

The question is on passage of the joint resolution.

The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. NICKLES. I announce that the Senator from Arizona (Mr. KYL) and the Senator from Pennsylvania (Mr. SPECTER) are necessarily absent.

Mr. REID. I announce that the Senator from Louisiana (Ms. LANDRIEU) is necessarily absent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Are there any other Senators in the Chamber who desire to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 96, nays 1, as follows:—

SERVICE IN THE SENATE

Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, it is rare in this Chamber for incumbent Senators who have lost on election day to still have the privilege of addressing the Senate again, at least in their capacity of finishing out their terms. For me, if there is a silver lining behind this extended session of which we are a part, it is because it gives me a chance to thank people—friends, supporters, staff, colleagues, and others—who have made it possible for me, a grandson of immigrants, to serve and succeed here.

I begin today by making some comments and thanking people who have made a difference.
